About This Game

The goal sounds simple but believe us, it is not!

Use your mouse to protect your grid tiles from the falling objects! Seriously, where do they even come from?! Click on the tiles to heal them and prevent them from breaking. Each click equals a small amount of heal but be careful – each falling object deals a different amount of damage. Save as many tiles as you can within the time limit, in order to advance to the next level.

Play through different environments, unlock awesome items and use your abilities wisely as they will help you to survive on your quest for glory!
